REAPPOINTMENT OF INCUMBENT MAGISTRATE JUDGE

— PUBLIC COMMENTS INVITED —

The current term of office of United States Magistrate Judge Michelle H. Burns at Phoenix, Arizona, is due to expire on February 22, 2015. The United States District Court is required by law to establish a panel of citizens to consider the reappointment of the magistrate judge to a new eight year term.

The duties of a magistrate judge position include the following:

- (1) conduct of most preliminary proceedings in criminal cases;
- (2) trial and disposition of misdemeanor cases;
- (3) conduct of various pretrial matters and evidentiary proceedings on delegation from the judges of the district court; and
- (4) trial and disposition of civil cases upon consent of the litigants.

Comments from members of the bar and the public are invited as to whether the incumbent magistrate judge should be recommended by the panel for reappointment by the court. All comments will be kept confidential. Comments must be received by October 31, 2014, and may be submitted via email to commentsMHB@azd.uscourts.gov or by mail or in person to:
